The school teachers cannot be paid their second month's salary on Saturday. The State Treasurer hopes to be able to send the money in two weeks.

CHICK PIPER and Bryan Thompson, colored, were up before Judge Webb, on Wednesday, charged with a breach of peace. They were assessed a fine of $7.50.

MRS. ELIZABETH LANDERS, of Burgin, is the mother of 19 children, 13 of whom are living. She is 72 years old and enjoys as good health and is as active as the average woman of 50.

ATTENTION is directed to the new advertisements in this issue of the News, of C. S. Brent & Bro., Turkeys; Daugherty Bros., Cameris; L. B. Conway & Co., Millinery, and L. D. Thompson, Sheep.

PARTRIDGES cannot be hunted lawfully until Nov. 15th, but there are people who pay no regard to the bird law. The dry Summer was favorable to young partridges and the crop is said to be a good one.

CLARENCE SNEDIGER was arrested by United States officers at Owingsville as he returned home from a two-year's stay in the Frankfort Penitentiary. His second arrest is for breaking in the Post-office at Owingsville.

The newest labor organization in the News is the Pull-bearers' Union, formed by about sixty men who gain a livelihood in the service of undertakers. The new union will apply for a charter from the American Federation of Labor.

MR. AND MRS. SIDNEY G. CLAY will entertain the "As You Like It" Card Club, Tuesday night, Nov. 12, at 8 o'clock, at their home on the Maysville turnpike, with a masquerade dance. The list of young ladies is with Mr. John Spears.

THE Salt Lick Pantagraph is the name of a new journalistic candidate for public favor at the flourishing Bath county town. W. F. Schooler, of the Morehead Kentucky Advance, is editor, and E. C. Kimbrell managing editor.

New couplings for the fire hose have been purchased by the city, for the use of the Fire Department, so that when they should be compelled to call for assistance from any other city, in the future, they will enable them to connect with any hose.

The sewer workmen on the streets have been very fortunate so far in not having any rain to disturb their labors. Rain is needed badly by the farmers and the cisterns in town are suffering for water, but the men on the streets say they can do without it for awhile.

CAPT. JAMES R. ROGERS left Wednesday morning for Louisville, to represent the John H. Morgan Camp, C. V. A., at a meeting of the committee of twenty-five from the United Confederate Veterans' Association to look into the location for the Kentucky Confederate Home. The meeting was held with Col. Bennet Young, as chairman, in the office of the Courier-Journal, on Wednesday.

Will Case Compromised.

The Woodford will case, which has become a celebrated one, which has occupied the time of several terms of the Bourbon Circuit Court, has been compromised. Under the compromise, Dr. Matt Woodford gets the use of 50 shares of bank stock during his life time, which will insure him a comfortable income.

Aside from the above, the will as probated is to be carried out by the executors, the expenses of the suit to be paid out of the estate.

The Woodford will case became celebrated from the fact that every member of the Paris bar was employed on one side or the other.

Religious.

The meetings at the Christian Church are attracting large crowds each night and a great deal of interest is manifested. There has been seven additions thus far. Those that have made confessions are Mr. Dan Peed, Mr. Sam Clay, and Misses Bessie Stone, Laura Smith, Elizabeth Woodford and Pearl Major. The last four young ladies are pupils at the Bourbon College. Mr. Charles Clark, the manager of the Bluegrass Grocery, joined by letter.

The meetings at the Baptist Church are being well attended and those who were fortunate in hearing Rev. B. B. Bailey, have been well repaid, as he is certainly a gifted orator and his sermons are greatly enjoyed. There was one addition to the church on Wednesday night, Miss Julia Hall.

The union of the Northern and Southern branches of the Methodist Church was considered at a meeting of the Bishops in Cincinnati last week. The question has frequently been up before but the union has never yet taken place.

The Christian Women's Board of Missions report that Kentucky women gave during the year $17,261.75. No other State, save Ohio, gave that much. Ohio women's offerings were $18,692.48. The total from all the States was $148,692.67. Kentucky girls and boys also had the post of honor in the young people's department. The bands rank as follows: Paris second, $159.45; Richmond third, $146.22; Richmond fourth, $145.25.

There were 79 additions to the Christian Church just closed at Kirksville, Madison county.

Miss Belle H. Bennett, of Richmond, arrived home last week, after spending the Summer in England and Scotland. She was a delegate to the Great Methodist Ecumenical Conference, which met in London, in September.

A dramatic scene was enacted in Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago the other day when Father Crowley, the excommunicated priest, refused to quit the church when ordered to do so, Mass was instantly suspended at the "Gloria," the priests laid aside their vestments and quit the sanctuary and the altar lights were extinguished.

Amusements.

The Grace Rentfrow Company have been entertaining the public at the Grand Opera House, in this city, all of this week, and will close their engagement on to-morrow night. A ladies' and children's matinee will be given on to-morrow afternoon when each child in attendance, will receive a nice present.

Last night the company presented "A True Kentuckian," and on to-night they will give "Why Jones Left Home."

A NOTABLE THEATRICAL EVENT.

"Francesca Da Rimini," which is to be presented at the Grand on next Thursday night, may be set down as the chief classic event of the season. The large audiences present throughout the engagement of Mr. Skinner in Cincinnati last week and Louisville this week, and the unbounded enthusiasm displayed over the many splendid features of the great production constitute a proud tribute to the star, and emphasize the fact that theatre goers are quick to recognize conscientious endeavor in the direction of the loftiest form of the drama. It is not likely that Mr. Skinner will be uneasy about a new play for at least two seasons to come. "Francesca" should serve to delight his admirers, and make hosts of new friends all over the country for this season and the next. The details of the new production will prove an interesting feature for the close observation of those who have been too deeply engrossed in the absorbing story to note the various features. The several pretty pageants and the striking pictures in and out of the cathedral are worthy of special study. The characteristic music and the chants of madrigal boys are also interesting details of this absolutely complete presentation. Skinner, Boucicault, Norris and Miss Van Dresser will leave a most delightful memory of true dramatic art when "Francesca" departs for other scenes and fresh triumphs.

Prices for the engagement are as follows: Dress Circle, $1.50; Parquette, $1; Balcony 75c and 50c; Gallery 25c.

Sale of seats will open at the box office of the Grand on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Special attention given to orders for seats by mail or telephone 440.

To Confederates and Their Friends.

I have been requested to secure the names of all persons who entered the Confederate Army or Navy from Bourbon county; also a record of those killed in battle, wounded, died from imprisonment, or were paroled at close of the war, and at what point. Also want names of soldiers from other places, and now residents of this county. I will thank all persons who had friends or relatives engaged in the struggle to mail me a list, together with their rank, command and military record.

It is important that this list be ready within the next ten days.

Very Respectfully,
Nov. 8, 1901. A. T. FORSYTH.
